all things-alex

Alexandra is a creative and talented woman on many different levels; which makes her unique and versatile to most every and any brand. She engages her followers with her authenticity and sprinkles her humor on top.

Alex is first and foremost an artist, with hobbies in singing, dancing, drawing, writing, piano, and many more. She also takes her art to the gym where she perfects her body. As a former fitness competitor, Alex has placed in the top 5 twice in the NPC competition and was sponsored by Muscletech throughout her fitness journey.

With fitness, health and food come hand in hand. Alex is a foodie; both in the kitchen and out. She knows how to cook: healthy... and not so healthy. Sharing her favorite recipes and new delicious hot spots are always a must. Restaurants aren't the only places Alex travels to. As a world traveler, she has been around the world to several different countries. She loves to meet new people and is always up for adventures.

Alex caters to both demographics of men and women. She likes to hang with the guys, but loves to play with the girls. From putting together a trendy outfit before heading out for a spa treatment, or simply keeping it chill and comfortable at home while she plays Fallout- she does it all.

about alex

My name is Alexandra Izzo. I am a 29 year old Arizona native residing in Los Angeles pursuing my career as an actress and singer. With a BA in Theater and Film, and lifelong passion for the arts, film and music, social media has been my creative outlet for self expression and sharing everything else I love.

When I'm not acting or singing, I enjoy working out, cooking, traveling, gardening, playing video games, and my 7lb Yorkie-Pomeranian, Vegas.
